

Explanation of the Cosmetics Regulation

Print date: 12.12.2017

1. Legal basis:

Since November 30th, 2009 the Regulation (EC) No. 1223/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council on Cosmetic Products has come into force. This Regulation defines cosmetic products and specifies labelling requirements. Cosmetic products may include creams, emulsions, lotions, gels and oils for skin care, toilet soaps, deodorising soaps, bathing and shower products (in salt, foam, oil or gel form), deodorants and antiperspirants, hair cleaners (lotions, powder, shampoos), hair care products (lotions, creams, oils), lip care products and lip cosmetic products and sunscreen agents.

2. Application at FÖRCH:

This article is a cosmetic product which does not require a safety data sheet as cosmetic products do not fall under the CLP regulation. We comply with the information requirements in this Regulation on Cosmetic Products by indicating the ingredients according to INCI on the FÖRCH label.

The information contained herein is based on the data available at the time of creation of this data sheet (see print date) that are considered in the opinion of Theo Förch GmbH & Co. KG to be reliable. An express or implied warranty as to the accuracy of this data will not be provided. Theo Förch GmbH & Co. KG accepts no responsibility regarding the use of these data or the aforementioned products, processes or devices. You have to decide whether the products are suitable and complete for the intended application, for the protection of the environment and the health and safety of your employees and the users of this material. If we do not have expressly guaranteed in writing specific characteristics and the suitability of the products for a contractually agreed purpose, a technical advice or information, even if they are made in good faith, cannot be binding in any case. This also does not release the buyer from doing own controls, if necessary through a trial.

We strongly recommend that every print design, which is developed to create labels, printed boxes or similar, will be sent to Theo Förch GmbH & Co. KG for review and final approval. This product information replaces any information on the identical product, which was issued before the above-stated date of creation for the above product.
